

Under the building code, residents are responsible for house numbers visible from the street on buildings or mailboxes.

Recently, Skippack EMS had difficulty finding a residence, in an emergency, due to no visible house number. In an emergency situation, where time is important, this becomes a critical issue.

Code requires that house address numbers shall be 4 inches high with a contrasting background.

Have a safe holiday,

Larry Albera
Building Inspector