I. Meeting was called to order by Planning Commission Chair, Tim Landmesser at 7 PM. He led the Pledge of Allegiance and Roll Call.

II. PUBLIC COMMENT

Tanya Kateusz noted that the agenda was posted improperly. Stated meeting could be held but special meeting would have to be scheduled for voting purposes.

III. APPROVAL OF MINUTES – Held until next meeting.

IV. PLANS FOR REVIEW

A. 4388 Skippack Pike – R&R Martino Properties, LLC – Land Development

Rob Lewis of Kaplan Stewart representing owner of 4388 Skippack Pike made a presentation regarding the plan for this property. This approximately two-acre lot is owned by R&R Martino, LLC, and currently has a private residence. Proposing improvements to the property for mixed use by adding a 6400 sq ft commercial flex building. The proposed building use will be for auto dealing and traditional automotive mechanics.

Tim Woodrow reported on items presented and discussed at the Conditional Use Hearing.

The Planning Commission held discussions and asked questions regarding the proposed land development.

There was a consensus of the Planning Commission to work with solicitor to schedule a special meeting, advertise and post agenda properly so the proposed land development plan could be voted on and moved forward for approval.
